Heavy Rainfalls Fill Lake Okeechobee - Conservation Areas

Heavy rainfall during the past 30 days, including rains associated with Hurricane Abby, have filled Lake Okeechobee and other South Florida water storage facilities to capacity and some water is now being released, it was announced today by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in Jacksonville.

District Engineer John F. McElhenry said rainfall over portions of south Florida during May and June are now four to nine inches above normal for the two-month period.

Everglades National Park, which has received more than 25 inches of rainfall since Jan. 1, also is getting a heavy slug of water from the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project. Until early in May, Everglades Park and much of south Florida were gripped in a drought.

Rainfall over the 730-square-mile Lake Okeechobee during May totaled 7.17 inches and so far in June, the Lake has received an additional 8.35 inches of rain. Portions of Everglades Park, including Everglades Park, received in excess of 14 inches of rain during May, and so far this month, an additional six to eight inches of rain has fallen over the Glades.

Weather observers predict at least four more inches of rain over the water during the remainder of June.

Colonel McElhenry said heavy rain of water from the Kissimmee River chain of lakes is causing the water level in Lake Okeechobee to rise sharply. In order to keep Lake Okeechobee and the Conservation Areas at a safe level in the event of continued heavy rainfall and hurricanes, water is being released to the maximum extent possible to Everglades Park from Conservation Area 3. In addition, some water is being discharged through the Caloosahatchee River to help maintain the water stage in Lake Okeechobee.

"It may be necessary to make some water releases through the St. Lucie Canal if the heavy rains continue and the level of water in Lake Okeechobee continues to rise," Colonel McElhenry said.

Three water conservation areas south of Lake Okeechobee containing some 1345 square miles are now brimming full. Water in Conservation Area 3 varies from a few inches up to three feet deep. Water is being released from Conservation Area 1 into Conservation Area 2.

Bill To Benefit Sugar Cane Growers Quota

"Any deficit in the 1968 quota which has not been paid, or allocated on the date of the enactment of this joint resolution shall be assigned by the secretary of agriculture to the mainland cane sugar areas."

The preceding paragraph is an excerpt from a bill introduced to the House of Representatives, Friday, June 14, by Congressman Ed Gurney and is designed to "help the sugar cane farmers and processors of Florida."

Besides being aimed at reducing the threat of the proposed 1968 acreage cut, the bill is "intended for future years," according to Jim Martin, administrative assistant to the congressman. Martin makes his home in Ft. Lauderdale, where he is not at the capitol.

The bill has been referred to committees on agriculture in regards to the Puerto Rico quota assignment and that countries inability to meet it's quota.

"So many would allow the Florida farmers to assume some of the Puerto Rico quota," said Martin. "I don't think it's even when it happened. I didn't even know there was a quota until Jim's '68 bill was piling up." Mr. Driggers said.

"My husband and I didn't go up to see it, though."

Don Poole, whose father was driving the pick-up that hit the guard rail, said he waited for an hour and a half for the traffic to clear up. "I didn't even know dad was in it until the next day."

Those injured were taken to Glades General Hospital. Washington and Anfil were soon released. Mrs. McKinstry was listed in fair condition. Paul Davis died about three hours after being admitted to the hospital.

Washington was charged with manslaughter and is currently free on $5,000 bond.

Etta Browne Glades Pioneer Buried Monday

Mrs. Roqueta E. Browne, 87, resident of Belle Glade for over 42 years, passed away at John F. Kennedy Hospital Friday, June 14. She has been ill for several years and had been in a nursing home for 21 months.

She resided in her home at 2508 West Canal St., Belle Glade until her recent illness. A native of Colby, Wisconsin, she was born June 11, 1881.

She was organizer of the Woman's Club and served as first president. Under the Woman's Club, she was first librarian. She was active in the first Glades Club, but is best remembered as the one who promoted our first public library, and who presided over the 2nd Street in the north Glades.

Mrs. Browne had lived in northern Wisconsin where her husband, John P. (better known as Pa) Browne, was a farmer who worked in the big woods in winter. Her brother, Malbon C. "Bully" Eggleston, distinguished himself in the army during the war. He was a member of the first public library, and who presided over the 2nd Street in the north Glades.

Public Safety Director, C. C. Smith, said, "Judging from the experience of other states, approximately 40 percent of the cars inspected will be found to be in compliance with the law. This will save the time of those who are in compliance with the law."

The seven items to be checked prior to inspection are: 1. Proper registration; 2. Proper license; 3. Proper insurance; 4. Proper safety equipment; 5. Proper tire condition; 6. Proper horn condition; 7. Proper light condition.

NRA President Warns Of Move To End Private Gun Ownership

The President of the National Rifle Association warned the American people yesterday that there is a "systematic" attempt underway to eliminate private gun ownership in the United States.

Referring to the large number of editorials and editorialized news stories syndicated to many other newspapers by a few large metropolitan dailies which slanted news on gun legislation, NRA President Harold W. Glassen told a news conference at NRA's Washington headquarters:

"We are seeing a mass attempt — a syndicated attempt — to deceive the American people into believing it should abrogate the Second Amendment to the Constitution. (The Second Amendment reads: 'A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.')"

"We read in the Christian Science Monitor that what this newspaper calls gun control laws have the editorial backing of 93 percent of all newspaper circulation. I believe this, for practically all I see splashed across the front pages."

This is having its effect on the popular mind in Congress, he indicated. He said:

"Today we are witnessing an almost unbelievable phenomenon in America."

"We are witnessing the strange and masochistic spectacle of tens of thousands of normally proud and law-abiding Americans begging the federal government to take from them by force of law one of their basic civil rights: the right to keep and bear arms."

Make no mistake about it — there is no intention to propose a restriction on the right to keep and bear arms.

Sen. Holland Guest Speaker At Demo. Dinner

Twenty seven local Democratic candidates funded 300 supporters at the Cued Railroad Dinner and Capt. Al's Restaurant, Riviera Beach, Saturday night at which U.S. Senator Spessard L. Holland was Guest Speaker.

Holland indicated the need for both U.S. Senators to be from the same party if Florida is to continue to receive massive federal funds. "I've seen states where one senator was a Democrat and the other was a Republican, and there was no progress for most of these states."

Reading the list of distinguished guests in attendance were state representative Ralph Turley, U.S. Representative of the House of Representatives, Howard Walton, representative to Pat Thomas, Democratic State Chairman, and representatives of all the State Cabinet members.

Etta Browne, Our First Librarian

Longer had to travel by boat to Ft. Lauderdale, for a road from Ft. Lauderdale, but she had been built, but less good-looking, the only business establishments of the settlement were one hotel, one store and one sorry, crying gas station. A few families were scattered along the canal, but her neighbors were mostly coons, moccasins and mosquitoes. She had to learn to use a kerosene lamp, but she could only use kerosene as it wouldn't burn in the dark. A Coleman lantern furnished her light. It sure was a long drive from her home in northern Wisconsin. She had to work in the big woods in winter. Her brother, Malbon C. "Bully" Eggleston, distinguished himself in the army during the war. He was a member of the first public library, and who presided over the 2nd Street in the north Glades.

Chevelle prices not only start a full $100 less than other mid-size cars-it's more car.

We've thought of things for Chevelle that other mid-size cars would like you to forget. For instance, that tool-less package above gives you a ride that rivals bigger priced cars. (That's because we thought to give it Full Coil suspension. And a separate frame with a computer-refined mounting system cushioning its body by Fisher.)

The choice of engines and transmissions you have in the greatest in Chevelle's field. And if you're a performance buff, you'll find we did some thinking on your wave length: black-grilled SS 396's with Turbo-Jet V8 power you can order up to 350 horses strong.

You also get more ways of putting your personal stamp on a Chevelle than any other mid-size car offers. Take wheel covers alone. You can order simulated wire ones. Or mag-spokes. Or rally-type.

Even so, Chevelle prices start a full $100 under any competitive mid-size cars.

Now's that for a parting thought!

Tag Deadline Also Brings Inspection Date

The Florida Highway Patrol today reminded motorists that the June 20 deadline for buying license tags also brings the final decision on when to have cars inspected under the new statewide motor vehicle inspection program.

Colonel H. N. Kirkman, Director of the Department of Public Safety said, "If you have purchased your license and find the last number on the tag is four or five you have only until the end of June to have your car inspected."

Vehicles bearing new tags which end in the number six or seven must be inspected during July, eight or nine in August, zero or one in September, two or three in October and special tags are due in November. Cars will then be checked every six months.

Cars may be inspected before their required inspection month. New cars and cars being brought into the state for the first time must be inspected within ten days after being registered in Florida.

Vehicles must be reinspected when involved in an accident causing damage to any of the equipment required to be in good working order by the inspection program according to the Patrol.

YOUR MONEY

By Richard A. Photos

The first savings and loan association in America was the Oxford Provident Building Association, organized in 1831.

Pennsylvania, in 1831. That early town is now a part of Philadelphia, and its present claim to fame remains the birth of that first savings and loan association.

There were 37 members in that first association. It was different from today's associations in being a cooperative, open only to members. The idea was that each member put in a specified sum each week or month. When enough money was accumulated one member could get a loan to buy or build a home. Incidentally, that privilege of getting the loan went to the highest bidder. . . the member willing to pay the highest "premium." Later, as more savings accumulated additional members could obtain loans . . . until each member had had the chance. After that, the association had fulfilled its purpose and was dissolved.

Our savings and loan association, of course, is not "closed" to members only, either for savings or home loans. Even if you've never met us, you'll find a warm welcome here . . . and a desire to serve you, with planned savings or financing.

Methodist Youngsters Receive Certificates

Nursery school and kindergarten at the Community Methodist Church ended for the year with a picnic at the marina for the four-year olds, their parents and teachers, Monday, May 27.

The following evening the five-year olds entertained the families and friends at a covered dish dinner in Jameson Hall. Table decorations of greenery and flowers were made by the children.

Highlight of the evening was a birthday cake with candles to celebrate the summer birthdays of the children attending.

Songs were sung by the children under the theme of "The Kindergarten Year in Music" and was led by Mrs. Curtis Thompson. The children all participated in either the singing, some of which was in Spanish, or the dancing.

Following the musical program, certificates were presented by Rev. Henry Galloway. Arts and crafts were on display in the kindergarten rooms. Teachers for the five-year olds were Mrs. Florence Powell and Mrs. Carolyn Priest.

Mothers of the nursery school children were invited to the class on the last day for refreshments and the children entertained with songs learned under the direction of Mrs. Curtis Thompson. Teachers for the Nursery Class were Mrs. Betty Ann Galloway and Mrs. Teresa Trevin.
